DEDICATION

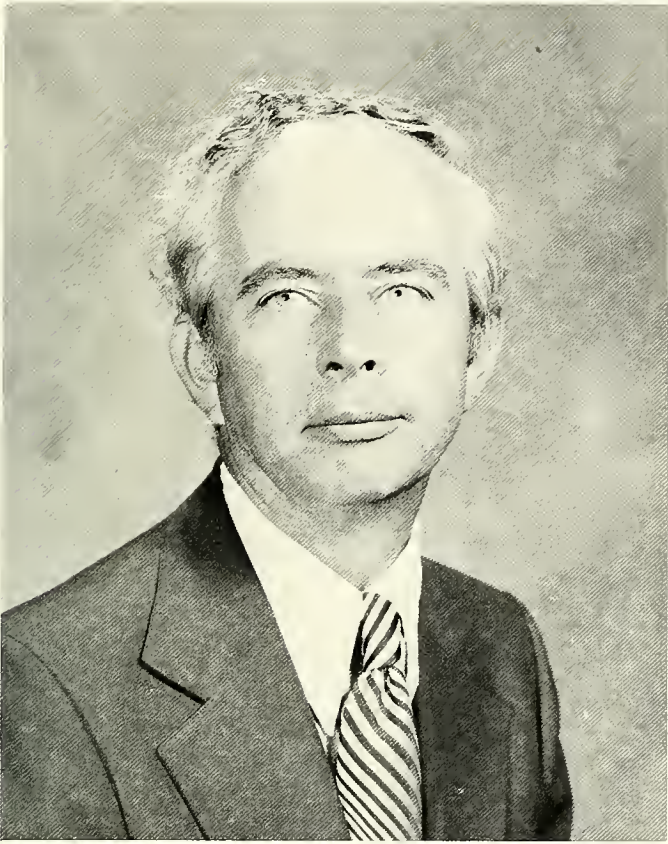

The 1979 BUFFALO is dedicated to Dr. C. Robert Wetzel, Professor of humanities and philosophy, in recognition of his service and love for Milligan College and its students. Dr. Wetzel has been both mentor and close friend to many students here. From the world of Wittgenstein to that of Elk Park, NC, Dr. Wetzel has shown his students what it means to be a philosopher as well as a dedicated Christian. Those who value his guidance and friendship are grateful to have been able to know him. May God bless Dr. Wetzel as he continues in Christian love to serve those who need him.

CHEEK HALL

Dedication
TO JOEL O. CHEEK

A loyal son of Tennessee, who represents the highest type of Southern nobility and chivalry in social, church, and business life; whose greatest delight has been to serve and enrich God's world by his good cheer, his generous giving, his human kindness, and his faith in Youth; whose gifts together with others have made possible our Alma Mater; we, the Senior Class of 1927, in grateful acknowledgment, dedicate this volume.

THE MIRACLE WORKER

This year Milligan tried something new. In past years, only two plays were produced. This year marks the first, in a long time, that four plays were produced, two in the fall and two in the spring.

In order to make things easier, "The Miracle Worker" was cast in the spring of 1978. This enabled the cast to concentrate on putting the show together in less than three weeks. For their efforts, "The Miracle Worker" opened the season with enthusiasm and excitement. Besides opening the season, the cast and crew, under the direction of Ira Read, dedicated this performance of "The Miracle Worker", our first production in the Derthick Hall Theatre, to the students, faculty, and friends of Milligan College who by their efforts have maintained and enriched the tradition of the theatre at Milligan College.

A Doctor	Cort Davisson

Martha	Suzy Nelson
Percy	Tracy Walker
Aunt Ev	Joy Phillips
James	Jim Dahlman
Anagnos	Dennis Elkins
Annie Sullivan	Terri Newton

Blind Girls	Melanie Means, Jennifer Ross

The scenes here show the many facets of the play, from beginning to end. "The Miracle Worker" is the story of Helen Keller as a child, lost in darkness and silence. It is her teacher Annie Sullivan, who was once also blind, that unlocks the door for Helen. This Achievement comes only after high tempers, a jealous brother, and a complete lack of concern for Helen's welfare by her family. It is a heartwarming play that the audiences thoroughly enjoyed.

FIDDLER ON THE ROOF

The fall musical for the 1978-79 season was the well acclaimed "Fiddler on the Roof". The show ran for three nights, Nov. 9, 10, and 11, in Seeger Chapel during Prospective Student/Alumni Weekend. "Fiddler on the Roof" is based on Sholem Aleichem's stories of peasant life in czarist Russia. Under the direction of Ira Read, the musical portrayed these stories through music and dance. John Wakefield supervised vocal direction with David McKenzie as conductor. Jan Gross was in charge of choreography. Associate Director and Producer were Paul Blowers and Terri Newton. These people, together with many others, gave us well remembered performances.

The pictures shown here are primarily the opening number "Tradition" sung by the entire cast led by Tevey. Another scene depicts Tevey's daughters in "Matchmaker, Matchmaker". The other pictures consist of the orchestra, proving the old saying, "Behind every musical there must be an equally outstanding orchestra."

The Johnson City Symphony Orchestra

The Johnson City Symphony Orchestra visited Milligan several times during the 1978-79 season. Students and community members enjoy the concerts conducted and directed by James Marable. The Concert choirs from both Milligan and ETSU joined the symphony this year in a Christmas presentation of Handel's "Messiah".

- Harpichord Mary Lynn Dell
- Violin Theresa MacKenzie
- Recorder Beth Bartchy
- Recorder Karen Shields
- Flute Cindi Leimbach

The custom has been to do a Shakespearean play every other year. However, since "Much Ado About Nothing" was such a smash hit plans were made to possibly do Shakespeare more often. "Much Ado About Nothing" ran four nights, March 7, 8, 9, 10 to accommodate the large audiences. The director and producer was Ira Read with Jack Knowles, B. J. Morrison, and Dennis Elkins assisting. The play brought back many Milligan alumni to add to the level of talent that produced an exceptional good show.

Each has his own highway
And you and I must travel different paths,
But, in the turn, they may approach
And be so near — that on the top of some brave hill,
Where freely blows the careless winds at will,
We may meet gladly, and so hand in hand,
May talk awhile, and let the hours stand.

...WHERE YOU ARE SERVED BY MUSIC EDUCATORS

Many thanks are extended to the people who helped to make the 1979 BUFFALO. Although many people contributed ideas and suggestions, the following people gave of their time and their talent to the yearbook: Rod Irvin — yearbook advisor, Dr. Euel Ownby — Publications Committee, Cindy Mitchell — business manager, Kathy Bailey, Dennis Elkins, Chris Hunkins, Theresa Gee, Amy Bucher, Minta Berry and Cort Davisson.

I would also like to express my gratitude to the photographers for dedicating their time and much hard work to the BUFFALO. The 1979 photographers include Steve Adams, Mark Siebert, Steve Leach, Scott Allbee, Jeff Cook, Gilan Wetzell, Mark Richardson, Minta Berry and Karen Smoak.

Good times should be made to last Haste, that notorious enemy of memories,
turns awareness into forgetfulness.
And, momentous experiences are over almost before they've begun
Fun times, unique times become lost times . . .
unless they achieve immortality between the covers of a book.
Some say yearbooks can make time stand still.
They can.
